Deep beneath the sparkling blue sea lived a little fish named Sunny.

Sunny had bright golden scales that shimmered in the sunlight.

Every fish smiled and watched as Sunny swam by.

"You are so shiny!" the little fish said. Sunny smiled proudly.

The little fish asked,
"Will you come play with us?"

"No, thank you," said Sunny.
He swam away by himself.

Soon, the other fish stopped asking Sunny to play. The ocean felt quiet.

Sunny looked around. He wished he had a friend.

A kind old sea turtle smiled and said, "A kind heart shines brighter than golden scales."

Sunny thought about those words all day long.

The next morning, Sunny helped a tiny crab escape from tangled seaweed.

Then he guided a lost little seahorse safely back to its family.

Sunny shared a patch of fresh sea plants with some hungry fish.

"Thank you!" the little fish cheered. Their smiles made Sunny smile too.

"Would you like to play with us now?" they asked.

Sunny laughed as everyone raced through the colorful coral reef.

They chased bubbles, played hide-and-seek, and splashed through the water together.

Helping others filled Sunny's heart with happiness.

Every day, the reef was full of laughter, kindness, and friendship.

Sunny discovered that the greatest treasure of all is a kind and caring heart.
